About the David C. Herriman Fund of GCF

The David C. Herriman Fund of Greater Cincinnati Foundation was established by Mr. Herriman to facilitate grants to regional performing arts organizations through a competitive process. The funds available for distribution in 2024 are $400,000.

Funding Focus

The Fund was created to support the arts in the Greater Cincinnati area of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, with a preference for the performing arts. Special consideration will be given to enhancing performance through support for bringing in performance artists, directors, choreographers, authors, musicians, etc. Proposals for the performance of new works and for the education of youth, specifically in the performing arts, are encouraged.

Purpose

In Mr. Herriman's words, "to make possible what would otherwise be impossible" opportunities for arts organizations in the Greater Cincinnati area.

Result

Cincinnati area audiences will enjoy unique and extraordinary arts experiences.

Use of Funds

Funding may be used to help launch a new program or project or to significantly enhance existing programs. Grants for capital purposes are discouraged, other than grants for equipment related to a specific performance. Funding will not be awarded for campaigns, special events or fundraising.

Criteria

- Applicants must be local 501(c)(3) organizations, which support the arts in Hamilton, Butler, Warren and Clermont counties in Ohio, Campbell, Kenton and Boone counties in Kentucky, and Dearborn County in Indiana.
- Applicants may be large or small organizations, with a strong preference for performing arts organizations, including musical groups. Colleges and universities, however, are excluded.
- In accordance with Mr. Herriman's wishes of creating meaningful impact, this funding opportunity may provide one larger grant and up to two smaller grants. The total granted will not exceed $400,000. The ranges of these grants, depending on proposals under consideration, will be between $200,000 and $400,000 for the large grant and between $15,000 and $50,000 for smaller projects.
- Project/performance should commence in 2025. Small grant project/performances should conclude no later than December 31, 2026; large grant project/performances should conclude no later than December 31, 2027.
- No one organization may be awarded a grant from the Herriman Fund for more than two years in succession.
- Special consideration shall be given to enhancing performances through support for bringing in nationally recognized performance artists, directors, choreographers, authors, musicians, etc.
- Grants for education of youth, specifically for the performing arts, are also encouraged.
- Grants for performing new works are encouraged.

Application Process

Organizations seeking to apply must submit a Letter of Intent (LOI) by August 15, 2024. Upon review, a select number of organizations will be invited to submit full proposals. The full proposal deadline is October 1, 2024.

Respond to this RFP via GCF's online grantmaking system using the "David C. Herriman Fund of GCF."
